Extract from the act of Congress of 3d March, 1845, section 18.

"And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General, in all future lettings of contracts for the transportation of the mail, to let the same, in every case, to the lowest hidder tendering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security of such transportation; nor shall any new contractor hereafter be required to purchase out, or take at a valuation, the stock or vehicle of any previous contractor for the same route."

(17) Bidders will be careful to read the forms and instructions appended to this advertisement. They are requested to state in their proposals the mode by which they intend to convey the mail. Where the size and weight of the mails, or the speed called for in the schedules, shall require it, the contracts will be made for coach, steamboat, or railroad conveyance, as the case may be; and, consequently, such routes will be let to bids proposing such mode of conveyance. In all other cases, the routes will be assigned to bids proposing the cheaptest mode of transportation.

(17) Railroad companies are specially notified that their regular bids are to be understood as including the supply of each office on the line of their respective roads, not over a quarter of a mile from a depot. Separate proposals for offices more than a quarter of a mile off will be considered.

manship proposed, and also with evidence of the competency and ability of the bidder to execute the work according to contract.

The specimens must be delivered at the Department on or before the 21st day of April next, and will, in connexion with the proposals, form the basis of the contracts.

The bidder or bidders chosen will be required to give bond, with sufficient sureties, (to be so certified to by the Postmaster of the place where he or they may reside,) in a sum of money double the odicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle gr. and between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. The American Publishers, therefore, deem it proper to call renewed attention to these Periodicals, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE. In these periodicals arecontained the views, moderately, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical. "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review," Whig; and the "Westminster Review," Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being, in fact, a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage by this combination of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued.

The above periodicalsare reprinted in New York,

Rey Biscayne, or Miami, and Key Vaccas, (either one or all.) are invited.

Proposals for commencing at New York, Savannah, Penascola, or New Orleans, will also be considered.

The proposals should set forth the size, rate, and description of the vessel, with sufficient particularity to enable the decision to be made on the advice of the proper officers of the naval service, whether the same is or is not convertible into a ship of war. And special notice is hereby given, that, agreeably to the provisions of the act of Congress of 3d March, 1845, those proposals (being acceptable in other respects) will be preferred which shall stipulate to deliver the steamship or ships, to be provided for carrying said mails, to the United States, or to their proper officer, on demand made, for the purpose of being converted into a vesselo or vessels of war; the United States being bound, on their part, to pay the fair full value thereof at the time of delivery, to be ascertained by four appraisers, appointed, two by the President of the United States.

The bidder may embrace in his offer a stipulation to carry an agent of the Post Office Department with the mails, or he may omit it, at his discretion. Such stipulation may induce a preference to be given in favor of a bid equal in other respects over a bid not containing it.

Articles of contract are to be executed by the accepted bidder and by his sureties, by or before the first day of July next. The contract is to provide, and not more than three times the pay of the trip when the trip is not run, and no sufficient excuse for the failure is furnished, and a due proportion of it when a grade of service is rendered inferior to that specified in the contract; and that fines may be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained in due time, for failing to take from, or to deliver into, the post office at the post of landing the mail belonging the mail, or any part of it, to be wet, injured, lost, or destroyed; for conveying it in a place or manner that exposes it to The charts of the following small Harbors and Harbors of Refuge, are sold at 15 cents per copy, vie:
